

Building Resilient Healthcare Facilities Forum

Design Strategies for People and Performance

FEATURED SPEAKER

Belinda Miles, PhD

President, SUNY Westchester Community College

Belinda S. Miles serves as president of the largest college in Westchester County, New York — one of the nation's largest metropolitan regions. President Miles serves on several boards focused on workforce development, expanding mobility, and the impact of technology on the future of work. Regionally, she is a member of the Board of Directors for the Business Council of Westchester, the Westchester-Putnam Workforce Investment Board, and Hudson Valley Patterns for Progress. Her national leadership includes board or advisory roles at the American Association of Community Colleges, American Association of Colleges & Universities Presidents' Trust, and the Block Center for Technology and Society at Carnegie Mellon University.

Recognized by City and State NY as one of Westchester's Power 50 (2018), President Miles' numerous awards include YWCA Education Champion Award (2020); Westchester County Federation of Women's Clubs and F. Willia Davis Women's Clubs Woman of the Year (2019); and 914INC Magazine Women in Business (2017), among many. Dr. Miles is a highly regarded regional and national presenter on a range of topics including community colleges as a disruptive innovation in academia that fosters an equitable and inclusive democracy.

Prior to joining Westchester Community College, President Miles served as provost and executive vice president of Access, Learning, and Success at Cuyahoga Community College with oversight of four campuses and multiple extension sites serving 60,000 students in the Greater Cleveland, Ohio area. Her other roles at Cuyahoga included president of the Eastern Campus, dean of Academic Affairs, and assistant dean of Liberal Arts. Other previous positions include faculty and administrator roles at LaGuardia Community College, Nassau Community College, and Columbia University.