

This statement certifies that the Dormitory Authority of the State of New York followed a process that assessed and documented adequacy of its internal control structure and policies for the year ending March 31, 2022. To the extent that deficiencies were identified, DASNY has developed corrective action plans to reduce any corresponding risk.