Exhibit A: Dormitory Authority of the State of New York - Code of Business Ethics

A. Ethics Programs

1. DASNY is a public-benefit corporation of the State of New York and expects the highest degree of ethical business conduct by its employees and the many contractors, consultants and vendors with whom it interacts on behalf of its clients, bondholders and the people of the State of New York. DASNY, by mandate of its Board of Directors, administers a comprehensive corporate integrity program to ensure that, as public officers, DASNY employees at all levels perform their official duties consistent with the requirements of the New York State Public Officers Law; other applicable laws, rules, and regulations; and policies of DASNY.
2. DASNY encourages and supports a fair, open and honest business relationship with its contractors, consultants and vendors based on quality, service and cost. Moreover, DASNY believes that a “level playing field” in the marketplace can only be achieved through adherence to ethical business practices by all participants involved in the process.
3. To promote a working relationship with DASNY based on ethical business practices, contractors, consultants and vendors are expected to:
 - a. furnish all goods, materials and services to DASNY as contractually required and specified;
 - b. submit complete and accurate reports to DASNY and its representatives as required;
 - c. not seek, solicit, demand or accept any information, verbal or written, from DASNY or its representatives that provides an unfair advantage over a competitor;
 - d. not engage in any activity or course of conduct that restricts open and fair competition on Authority-related projects and transactions;
 - e. not engage in any course of conduct with DASNY employees or representatives that constitutes a conflict of interest or creates the appearance of a conflict of interest;
 - f. not offer any unlawful gifts or gratuities to DASNY employees or representatives, or engage in bribery or other criminal activity; and
 - g. report to DASNY any activity by an DASNY employee or contractor, consultant or vendor of DASNY that is inconsistent with DASNY’s Code of Business Ethics.
4. DASNY encourages its contractors, consultants and vendors to advance and support ethical business conduct and practices among their respective directors, officers and employees, preferably through the adoption of corporate ethics awareness training programs and written codes of conduct. In addition to considering technical competence and financial stability, DASNY will consider the corporate integrity of all contractors, consultants and vendors prior to the awarding of contracts or issuing of purchase orders.

B. Conduct of DASNY Employees

DASNY employees are expected to conduct business with contractors, consultants and vendors in a fair, consistent and professional manner. DASNY's Code of Business Ethics and Employee Conduct entitled Serving Responsibly, and other DASNY policies and procedures, guide the manner in which DASNY employees are required to interact with contractors, consultants and vendors. Additionally, the New York State Public Officers Law sets forth legal parameters within which DASNY employees must perform their official duties with respect to, among other things, conflicts of interest and the acceptance of gifts.

Limits on Gifts to DASNY Employees

1. Pursuant to Section 73(5) of the Public Officers Law, no person shall offer any gift having more than a nominal value to an DASNY employee under circumstances in which it:
 - a. could be reasonably inferred the gift was intended to influence the employee in the performance of his or her official duties;; or
 - b. could reasonably be expected to influence the employee in the performance of his or her official duties;; or
 - c. was intended as a reward for any official action on the part of the employee.
2. A gift is anything more than nominal in value, in any form, given to an DASNY employee. Gifts include, but are not limited to, money, service, loan, travel, lodging, meals, refreshments, entertainment, discount, forbearance or promise. Any firm or its agents, either doing business or seeking to do business with DASNY (contractors, consultants, vendors, etc.), is prohibited from directly or indirectly offering or giving any gifts, even gifts of nominal value, to DASNY employees as such gifts are deemed to be per se improper.
3. As is stated in the Prohibited Interests section of the Construction and Consultant Contract documents, violations of these gift provisions may be grounds for immediate contract termination and/or referral for civil action or criminal prosecution.

C. Employing Relatives of DASNY Employees

Although contractors, consultants and vendors may employ relatives of DASNY employees, DASNY must be made aware of such circumstances as soon as possible, preferably in writing, to ensure a conflict of interest situation does not arise. DASNY reserves the right to request that contractors, consultants and vendors modify the work assignment of an DASNY employee's relative where a conflict of interest, or the appearance thereof, is deemed to exist. Please be advised that DASNY employees are required to disclose information regarding the hiring of relatives by contractors, consultants and vendors and recuse themselves from matters that may present a conflict of interest. For purposes of this document, the term "relatives" refers to spouses, domestic partners, parents, children, sisters, brothers, sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, parents-in-law, sons/daughters-in-law, stepparents, stepchildren, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, first cousins, grandparents by blood relationship or by marriage, or persons residing in the same household.

However, as a general rule, former employees of DASNY may neither appear nor practice before DASNY, nor receive compensation for services rendered on a matter before DASNY, for a period of two years following their separation from DASNY service. In addition, former DASNY employees are subject to a “lifetime bar” from appearing before DASNY or receiving compensation for services regarding any transaction in which they personally participated or which was under their active consideration during their tenure with DASNY. Violations will be referred to the New York State Commission on Public Integrity for appropriate action.
